MINUTES

OF THE

FIFTIETH SESSION

OF THE

Baptist State Convention.

FIRST DAY.

MORNING SESSION.

GREENVILLE BAPTIST CHURCH, S. C.,
THURSDAY, July 28, 1870.

The Convention was called to order by the former President, Rev. J. L. Reynolds, D. D., and, after singing the hymn,

"Come let us join our friends above,"

Prayer was offered by Rev. John Culpepper.

The Secretary being absent, Oliver F. Gregory was requested to act as Secretary pro tem.

The Chair then requested the delegates present to report to the Secretary. The Associations were represented as follows:

Charleston.—Rev. L. H. Shuck, Oliver F. Gregory, Rev. T. W. Mellichamp, Rev. Wm. J. Snider.

Edgefield.—Dr. T. Lake, Rev. V. Young, J. W. Fouche, Rev. W. A. Gaines, Rev. W. B. Jones, Rev. F. R. Underwood, G. A. Addison, Geo. Harrison.

Tyger River.—Rev. J. C. Furman, D. D., C. H. Judson, Rev. J. P. Boyce, D. D., Rev. W. D. Thomas, J. B. Patrick, Rev. B. Manly, Jr., D. D., Rev. W. Williams, D. D., Rev. B. F. Whilden, Rev. T. D. Gwin, T. P. Smith, G. F. Townes, A. B. Woodruff, E. S. Allen, Samuel Stradley, J. C. Smith.

Welsh Neck.—Rev. John Culpepper, Rev. J. O. B. Dargan, D. D., J. L. Coker, B. W. Edwards, Rev. J. A. W. Thomas, Rev. F. W. Eason, Rev. B. F. Parrott, A. W. Parrott, Rev. T. P. Lide, Jr., Rev. T. E. Hart.

Reedy River.—Rev. J. K. Mendenhall, J. B. Carwile, Rev. Thos. H. Pope, R. S. Griffin.

Fairfield.—Rev. J. L. Reynolds, D. D., Rev. A. K. Durham, Dr. R. H. Jordan, E. R. Stokes.

Saluda.—Rev. W. P. Martin, John Pratt, S. M. Tribble, R. N. Pratt.

Greenville.—J. L. Westmoreland.

Barnwell.—Rev. W. H. Dowling.

Newberry Church.—Rev. John Stout, W. T. Wright, Samuel Furman, Y. J. Pope.

The President announced that the time for the election of officers had arrived, and appointed Brethren J. B. Carwile and R. H. Jordan as tellers.

Rev. F. W. Eason nominated Rev. J. L. Reynolds, D. D., for President; Rev. J. O. B. Dargan, D. D., Vice-President; Oliver F. Gregory, Secretary; C. H. Judson, Treasurer.

The Convention then proceeded to ballot, and the candidates mentioned above were elected.

During the interim, whilst the tellers had retired to count the ballots, the time was spent in religious exercises. After singing the hymn, a few appropriate remarks were made by Rev. J. O. B. Dargan, and prayer offered by Rev. L. H. Shuck.

On the call for new Associations, who desired to be admitted, Rev. John G. Williams, of Colleton Association, presented a copy of the minutes of that body, and requested admission.

Rev. J. O. B. Dargan moved that Colleton Association be admitted as a constituent of this body, and its delegates welcomed to a part of of our deliberations. Carried.

Rev. J. O. B. Dargan moved "that this Convention elect an Assistant Secretary." Carried.

Rev. John Culpepper nominated J. L. Coker, and moved that he be elected by acclamation. Carried.

Rev. W. D. Thomas moved that the Introductory Sermon before this Convention be preached at half-past eight o'clock to-night. Carried.

On motion Rev. John Culpepper, Rev. T. C. Teasdale, D. D., was welcomed to a seat in this body.

On motion Rev. B. Manly, ministerial brethren were invited to seats in the Convention, and a participation in its deliberations. Rev. J. F. Morrall, General Agent of the Executive Board, embraced the offer.

The President stated for the benefit of the Convention, that an error had arisen regarding the semi-centennial meeting of this body; that the Convention was formed in 1821; and that he had, therefore, instead of preparing a Sermon on the History of the Convention, prepared one on the History of the Baptist Denomination prior to the formation of the Convention.

The following resolution was offered by Dr. J. C. Furman:

Resolved, That it will be entirely agreeable to the wishes of this body that the discourse to be delivered by the President, as the Convention Sermon, shall embrace a history of the Baptists of South Carolina for the period anterior to the formation of this body.

Resolved, further, That Dr. Reynolds be requested to deliver, at our next annual meeting, the discourse contemplated, by the appointment of last year, on the History of the Convention.

On motion Rev. W. D. Thomas, the following hours were fixed for the opening and closing of the Convention: Meet each day at 9 A. M.; adjourn at 1½ P. M., at latest. Meet at 4 P. M.; adjourn at 6 P. M.; and if any night session be held, that we meet at 8½ P. M.

The President appointed the Pastor and Deacons of the Greenville Baptist Church as the Committee on Religious Exercises.

Rev. T. W. Mellichamp offered a partial report on behalf of the Committee on Obituaries, which was, on motion of Dr. Manly, recommitted for completion.

The Constitution and Rules of Order were read by the Secretary.

Rev. L. H. Shuck offered the following:

Resolved, That when this Convention adjourns, it adjourn to meet in future on Thursday before the last Sabbath in May of each year.

Considerable debate arose on the question, which was participated in by Rev. L. H. Shuck, Rev. John G. Williams, Rev. John Culpepper, Rev. J. O. B. Dargan, Rev. F. W. Eason, C. H. Judson, J. B. Patrick, and B. W. Edwards.

C. H. Judson moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Time and Place.

Rev. L. H. Shuck spoke in favor of his resolution, and Rev. John Culpepper replied.

Y. J. Pope, after preliminary remarks, moved, as a substitute to the amendment, "that the question of change in the time of the session of this Convention be referred to a committee of one delegate from each Association," which was agreed to.

The President then appointed the following as the committee: Y. J. Pope, of Reedy River Association; Rev. L. H. Shuck, of Charleston Association; T. Lake, of Edgefield Association; Rev. J. C. Furman, of Tyger River Association; Rev. J. Culpepper, of Welsh Neck Association; Rev. A. K. Durham, of Fairfield Association; Rev. W. H. Dowling, of Barnwell Association; Rev. J. G. Williams, of Colleton Association.

Rev. W. D. Thomas moved that the Rev. Dr. Teasdale, Secretary of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, be invited to address the Convention at 10 o'clock to-morrow. Carried.

The President then appointed the following regular committees:

On Religious Services.—Pastor and Deacons of Greenville Church.

On Accounts.—Rev. T. W. Mellichamp, Rev. William J. Snider, T. Lake, G. A. Addison, G. F. Townes, E. R. Stokes, Y. J. Pope.

On Time and Place of Next Meeting, and Persons to Perform Stated Services.—Rev. J. O. B. Dargan, Rev. L. H. Shuck, Rev. W. B. Jones, Geo. Harrison, C. H. Judson, Rev. F. W. Eason, S. M. Tribble, J. L. Westmoreland, W. T. Wright.

On Names and Post Offices of Ministers.—Rev. B. Manly, Jr., Rev. V. Young, Rev. R. F. Whilden, A. B. Woodruff, E. S. Allen, Rev. T. P. Lide, Jr., Rev. T. H. Pope, R. N. Pratt.

On Nominations of Executive Board.—Rev. J. C. Furman, J. W. Fouche, Rev. W. A. Gaines, Rev. F. R. Underwood, B. W. Edwards, Rev. B. F. Parrott, Samuel Furman.

On Obituary Notices, to Report at Next Annual Meeting.—Rev.

W. D. Thomas, Rev. John G. Williams, Rev. T. D. Gwin, Rev. J. A. W. Thomas, John Pratt.

On Nominations of Delegates to Southern Baptist Convention.—Rev. A. K. Durham, J. B. Patrick, T. P. Smith, Rev. A. W. Parrott, Rev. T. W. Hart, Rev. J. K. Mendenhall, R. H. Jordan, Rev. W. P. Martin, Rev. W. H. Dowling, Rev. John Stout.

C. H. Judson offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of seven, of which the President of this Convention shall be chairman, be appointed to consider the expediency and practicability of an immediate effort to reinstate or endow Furman University, and that this committee report (if practicable) to-morrow morning.

Committee.—Rev. J. L. Reynolds, Rev. W. D. Thomas, Rev. L. H. Shuck, Y. J. Pope, Rev. J. A. W. Thomas, Rev. F. W. Eason, Rev. John G. Williams.

Dr. J. C. Furman announced that the Trustees of Furman University would meet in the Pastor's room immediately after adjournment, and that an address would be delivered on Saturday night before the Alumni of Furman University.

After prayer by Rev. Dr. Teasdale, the Convention, on motion Rev. W. D. Thomas, adjourned to meet at 4 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention met at 4 P. M., and after singing 615th Hymn, was opened with prayer by Rev. J. K. Mendenhall.

The Report from the Executive Board was read by Rev. J. K. Mendenhall, as follows:

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD.

We regret to mention that, through a sore and mysterious affliction, the Chairman of the Board, Rev. R. Furman, D. D., has not been able to attend its meetings. While we mourn his severe affliction, involving a loss of his valuable services to the Board, we endeavor to bow with Christian submission to the will of Him who is the righteous disposer of all events, and lift up our supplications for his speedy and permanent recovery.

We are rejoiced to be able to report that some progress has been made in the great work committed to our guidance. A large number of the churches have inaugurated a systematic plan of beneficence. We fear that some have been indifferent in carrying out the plan, but wherever it has been faithfully tried, a spirit of charity has been engendered, intelligent piety promoted, and enlarged contributions received.

In accordance with the instructions of the Convention, the Board has endeavored to put itself in communication with every Baptist Church in the State. Through circulars, private letters, and appeals of the General Agent, the Board has endeavored to procure monthly contributions to the important interests committed to its trust. Although comparatively few have responded directly by monthly contributions, we are assured that many will, through their Associations, exhibit a stated, enlarged apostolic liberality.

The Board prevailed on the former Agent, Rev. T. H. Pope, to continue his labors until January 1st, 1870. The high appreciation which was entertained for his services is exhibited in the following resolution, passed by the Board at his resignation:

"Resolved, That the thanks of the denomination are due to Brother T. H. Pope for the faithful and self-denying manner in which he has discharged the arduous duties of his agency."

The valuable services of Rev. J. F. Morrall (formerly of Aiken) were secured by the Board as General Agent and Missionary. He commenced his labors in April, and has been constantly employed to the present time—preaching, delivering Sunday School addresses, and fostering the varied interests of the Convention. He has met with sympathy and encouragement in every section of the State. For more specific account of his labors we refer to his own report, which we incorporate as a part of our general report:

BROTHER MORRALL'S REPORT.

Rev. J. K. Mendenhall, Corresponding Secretary Executive Board:

DEAR BROTHER—At the request of the Board I herewith forward my report for the short time in which I have been permitted to labor as its Agent. It will be remembered that I entered upon this work at an unpropitious season of the year, when money was scarce, and the members of churches, especially our country churches, were pressed for the means and time for carrying on their farming interests; a season, too, when great anxiety was felt in view of the delay of the planted seed to produce anything like confidence in the breast of the faithful sower. But God, the giver of all our mercies, was better to us all than our fears, for soon the heavens gave rain and the deposited grain sprang up, and the prospect of an abundant yield cheered the heart of the toiling and sacrificing farmer. It was a season, also, when there was nothing made by which money could be circulated in the country. And were it not for the interest everywhere felt in the great objects of the Board, the Agent would have had reason to have been discouraged; but there is no cause for depression, for the spirit of our churches and people, and the cheering ground of expectation, betokens success for the Board. The General Agent has been kindly received by the brethren and warmly welcomed by the churches everywhere. Invitations have been received from distant churches, and assurances given that what can, will be done for the Board.

The General Agent has visited the churches of God which are at Newberry, Charleston, Barnwell, Chester, Anderson, Columbia, Edgefield, Camden and Sumter, and of our country churches, Bush River, Duncan's Creek, Mount Zion, Siloam and Pisgah, From most of these churches contributions have been received for the Board, and encouragement from all.

As an abridgment for the fifteen weeks' work of the Agent, he has preached thirty-three times, made twenty-six Mission and Sunday School addresses, collected $332.25, and received pledges to the amount of $41.50; expended in travelling one thousand four hundred and ninety-six miles, $49.00 (the Agent not having been allowed to pass on all the roads even at half price).

The General Agent feels that, however meagre the amounts collected may appear, his visits have not been in vain, for the churches have been informed as to the work of the Board, and have promised to do more when the times are better. The Sunday Schools have been encouraged. The interests that are dear to the Board are taking deeper hold upon the affections of our churches. The cause of education has not been neglected, especially the interest of Furman University, and efforts have been made to excite the sympathy and interest of our people in its behalf. The General Agent cannot but be sensibly affected, as he has received, from time to time, the approval of the Board and its members in the work entrusted to him.

J. F. MORRALL, General Agent.

Rev. J. G. Williams was appointed Missionary for Beaufort, Grahamville and Robertville. These impoverished churches (formerly large, intelligent and liberal) have now the Gospel preached unto them by an able and devoted servant of Christ. In building up the waste places of Zion, Brother Williams has met with encouraging success. Congregations have been gathered, souls converted, and the hearts of God's people comforted. A Sabbath School has been organized, $25 received for the Board, four received by letter and seven baptized into the fellowship of the Church; others are inquiring the way of salvation. Gillisonville has recently been supplied with preaching by Brother Williams.

Rev. T. R. Gaines commenced his labors under the direction of the Board in May, in the Seventh and Eighth Wards of Charleston. There was a large and interesting population in this part of the city destitute of Baptist preaching. His report, which we herewith submit, presents the importance of this work:

BROTHER GAINES' REPORT.

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 18, 1870.

Rev. J. K. Mendenhall, Secretary State Mission Board:

DEAR BROTHER—The following is my report as Missionary in Charleston, for the quarter ending with July:

I entered my work in the city early in May, and had to lay the foundation for a congregation. We had no place to accommodate an audience, but succeeded in renting a large room on Spring Street, near the corner of Rutledge Avenue, which had been fitted up for a Sunday School by the Young Men's Christian Association. We meet twice on Sabbaths in this room, morning and evening, and I preach the Word to the people. Prayer meetings are also held twice during each week. Our congregation literally began with "two or three," and has been gradually increasing. There are now some twenty Baptists who have identified themselves with the Mission, and it is expected that a church will soon be constituted. I have recently received one lady for baptism, and hear of other persons who wish to be baptized. Some of those whom Dr. Winkler has recently baptized may be considered as belonging to our Mission. The work now seems encouraging, and all admit that it is an important field.

The Citadel Square Church of this City have recently granted the use of their lot on Rutledge Avenue on which to build a Chapel, and have appointed a committee of influential brethren to raise funds for building, and to co-operate generally in the Mission. They also grant me the use of the dwelling house on the lot (rent free).

There is a flourishing Sunday School, numbering about one hundred and fifty, conducted by a young Baptist brother, and taught principally by Baptists, which meets every Sunday afternoon, in the same room in which we hold worship. Though this School is under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, yet it is really ours, and will soon belong to the Baptist Mission.

Pray for us, that the work of the Lord may prosper in our hands.

Yours, in Christ,

TILMAN R. GAINES, Missionary.

The Sabbath School cause is eliciting deeper and more universal interest. We suggest the importance of calling a Baptist Sunday School Convention for this State.

Our noble University, the fountain from which has poured so many streams of healthful influence over the State, should be immediately endowed and liberally patronized. Furman University is too vast an instrumentality for the nurture of literature, science and morality—too deeply imbedded in the hearts of the brethren—too closely identified with the Baptist denomination of the State—to be permitted to languish and die. We would suggest the importance of considering the propriety of appointing an Agent to raise an adequate and permanent endowment.

We have not received any funds contributed for the education of young men studying for the ministry, but are rejoiced to learn that some of the Associations are sustaining wholly, or in part, deserving young brethren in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

We regret that we have not more full reports from the Associational Boards which are co-operating with the Convention. The following presents a brief statement of the missionary work performed by the Associations, as far as we have been able to ascertain.

The Charleston Association has five Missionaries in the field: Revs. J. L. Rollings, J. E. Hinton, C. W. Styles, A. K. Durham and John Culpepper.

The sum of $1,075 is appropriated by the Association to supplement the salaries of these Missionaries. Sabbath School books have been presented to destitute Schools, and purchased to the amount of $81. Bibles have been gratuitously distributed by the Missionaries. The contributions received for 1869 to the Association's Mission amounted to $638.84—a larger sum than has been received since the war. This contribution was made by twenty-two out of fifty churches composing the Association. The white membership of these churches is 1,574. The average contribution was less than one cent a week. Ought we not, remarks Brother W. B. Heriot, Chairman of the Board, take shame to ourselves that we do so little towards performing our part in spreading the glad tidings of salvation to those who are perishing for lack of knowledge; while at the same time, many of us spend such large sums on our pleasures and on our pride? If each member would make an average contribution of ten cents a week, it would raise the sum to upwards of $7,500.

The Reedy River Association has employed Rev. L. R. Scruggs to preach to the destitute churches in its bounds for two months and a half. He has been laboring with commendable zeal. It pays him $125 for his services. Although $159.85 have only been received since the last Convention by the Association Mission Board, yet it is confidently expected that the sums received at the approaching meeting of the Association will greatly augment this sum.

The Executive Committee of the Edgefield Association report that they are not definitely instructed by the Association as to the employment of a Missionary to labor in their bounds, but deeming it their will that they should do so, they made an effort, but failed, mainly on account of want of funds. The systematic plan of benevolence has not been adopted in all the churches, yet it is doing a good work in some. They receive contributions chiefly through the union meetings. They have on hand at present about $200, which will be disposed of by the Board at its next meeting in August. Their chief work has been with the book fund in supplying Sunday Schools, which is succeeding well; they sell the books at cost, and give to such as are unable to purchase.

We would suggest the propriety of endeavoring to raise a definite sum for the objects of the Convention, and have this sum proportionately divided among the Associations which are constituents of this body. These Associations could apportion the amounts to the churches of which they are composed. In this way, vastly larger sums could be raised, and no one burdened. This plan has been adopted by some of the Virginia Associations, and appears to accord with inspired teachings. 2 Cor. viii, 13, 14.

By reference to the Treasurer's Report, it will be observed that, while the contributions have been meagre in proportion to the wealth and members of the denomination, and the magnitude of the objects, yet they are larger than for many previous years. We have thus far been enabled to meet all the demands of the Board, and hope not only to pay the salaries of the brethren employed, but also to enlarge our operations. There are churches destitute of the preached Word. Some of these are located in towns and villages, centres of influence, which cannot entirely support the ministry. We desire to aid these until they become self-supporting, and ultimately contributors to our Board.

The Welsh Neck Association are supplementing the salaries of pastors of the following churches: Florence, $100; Marion, $100; Cheraw, $100; Macedonia, $50; Buck Swamp, $25. Total, $375.

Fairfield Association.—Winnsboro', $60; Seckwell, $60.

Beloved brethren, does it not seem, when we consider the intelligence, wealth and numbers of the Baptist denomination of the State, that we have been criminally negligent? Is it not the Lord's work in which we are engaged? Was it not devised by Infinite Wisdom? Does it not occupy the Heart and Hand of the Eternal? Are not the instrumentalities for its accomplishment adequate and Heaven ordained? Are not the promises of future success infallible? Is it not the authoritative command of the Lord: Preach the Gospel to every creature? Can we, with these powerful motives influencing us, remain in criminal case, or cowardly turn back in the day of battle, like the children of Ephraim, who, being armed with bows, fled in the hour of conflict? Are our skirts unstained by the blood of thousands who have gone down uninstructed, unconverted, unwarned, to an awful eternity, the unutterable spasms of the second death? Shall we hear the mighty forces of sin surging all around, threatening to bear away every thing lovely, honest and of good report, and not raise the standard of the Lord? Oh let us arise from our criminal slumbers! Let us no longer give to the Lord only the niggardly parings of a bountiful income! Let us no longer offer to the world a whole, perfect sacrifice, while we bring the lame and corrupt, that which costs us nothing, to the Lord's cause.

Shall we selfishly, like an opaque body, receive all the rays of light and reflect none; or, like the whirlpool, suck in everything and return nothing? Is it not ungrateful, insulting, dishonorable to God, to make the sacrifice to the pleasures or riches of the world, and bring only the leavings unto the treasury of our God? If we are truly living epistles of Christ, let us be careful that the letters are not blurred and begrimmed with covetousness, interpolated, forged, uncipherable, but reflect the glorious image of our Redeemer's character. If we are vessels in our Master's House, let us see that these vessels are cleansed for the manna. Let us implore that our light may shine more constantly, brilliantly; until the world shall be subdued by Divine Love to the Sceptre of Immanuel.

Let us pray that our faith may be increased, so that our latent graces may be developed. Oh that the spirit, with its vitalizing, constraining influence, may be outpoured, so that we may unitedly battle for the truth, until violence shall no more be heard within our land, wasting and desolation in our borders, but we shall call our walls Salvation, and our gates praise.

Respectfully submitted,

J. K. Mendenhall,

Corresponding Secretary of Board.

Rev. W. D. Thomas, after prefacing the resolution by remarking that before the war separate Boards attended to the work now executed by one, moved:

"That the report of the Executive Board be referred to a select committee of five, who shall consider the suggestions made in the said report, and shall also consider the expediency of distributing the work now confined to this single Board among several separate Boards of this Convention, and report as early as possible."

The names of Revs. T. J. Earle and W. B. Carson were added to the delegation from Tyger River Association.

The committee on considering the propriety of changing time of meeting, reported, recommending that hereafter the annual meetings of this Convention be held on the Thursday before the last Sabbath in November of each year.

A debate ensued between Brethren Y. J. Pope, John Culpepper, J. C. Furman and J. O. B. Dargan. Adopted.

Leave of absence was granted Rev. V. Young.

Adjourned after prayer by Brother J. B. Patrick

EVENING SESSION.

A Mass Meeting in behalf of Missions was convened at 8¼ P. M., Rev. J. K. Mendenhall presiding.

Addresses were delivered by Rev. J. O. B. Dargan, first General Agent of the Executive Board; Rev. John G. Williams, Missionary at Robertville, Beaufort, Gillisonville and Grahamville; Rev. T. R. Gaines, Missionary in Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Wards of the City of Charleston; Rev. J. F. Morrall, General Agent of the Executive Board; and Dr. M. T. Sumner, Secretary Domestic Mission Board Southern Baptist Convention.

A collection, amounting to $168, was taken up—to be equally divided between the State and Domestic Mission Boards.

THIRD DAY.

SATURDAY, July 30, 1870.

MORNING SESSION.

After singing,

"O, could I find from day to day,"

The opening prayer was offered by Rev. F. W. Eason.

The Committee to appoint delegates to the Southern Baptist Convention reported as follows:

Delegates to the Southern Baptist Convention.—Rev. Drs. E. T. Winkler, J. C. Furman, J. P. Boyce, W. Williams, B. Manly, Jr., J. A. Broadus, J. L. Reynolds, R. Furman, J. O. B. Dargan, C. H. Toy; and Revs. J. K. Mendenhall, W. D. Rice, T. H. Pope, J. Culpepper, L. H. Shuck, W. D. Thomas, A. K. Durham, L. C. Hinton, T. R. Gaines, G. W. Pickett, B. F. Whilden, I. D. Durham; and Brethren T. P. Smith, B. W. Edwards, C. H. Judson, S. W. Bookhart, R. H. Jordan, G. F. Townes, J. C. Smith, Samuel Stradley.

The Committee also recommend that the delegates who may be present be authorized to fill vacancies in the delegation. Adopted.

The Committee on Time, Place and Preachers for next Meeting, reported:

Time—Thursday before the last Sunday in November, 1871.

Place—Camden.

Introductory Sermon—Rev. J. L. Reynolds; alternate, Rev. Wm. Williams.

Charity Sermon—Rev. W. D. Thomas; alternate, Rev. J. G. Williams.

Dr. J. C. Furman, for the Committee on the Nomination of an Executive Board, reported the following names: President, Rev. T. H. Pope; Vice-President, G. T. Scott; Treasurer, Y. J. Pope; Auditor, John B. Carwile; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. J. K. Mendenhall; State Missionary, Rev. J. F. Morrall; other members, J. R. Leavell, T. S. Duncan, W. T. Wright, W. H. Webb, J. R. Spearman, Michael Werts, G. S. Cannon. Adopted.

Rev. T. W. Mellichamp, on behalf of the Committee on Obituaries, submitted the following report:

The Committee on Obituaries beg leave to report the death of Rev. John Morgan Timmons, a brother greatly beloved, and though without early culture, nor at any time exclusively devoted to the sacred office (a fact which he himself often deplored), yet such was the ability and spirit with which he went to his work, that he exerted a wide and hallowed influence in the community and Association in which he lived, left a sweet savor behind him, and by his death opened a painful chasm in the ministry of the State, which may not soon be filled. Brother Timmons was born on the 14th December, 1800. He was converted early in life, and baptized by his uncle, Rev. Samuel Timmons, into the fellowship of Elim Church, the pastorate of which he a few years afterwards received, and held to the day of his death—a period of nearly forty-five years. This remarkable term continued "amidst the mutations, the complicated troubles, and sad reverses of the period," closed in peace on the 30th day of October, 1869. His dying hour exhibited strong and beautiful evidences of resignation and faith. His confidence in the grace and mercy of the Saviour was unmoving; his hope bright, constant, triumphant. His funeral services were impressively solemn, in the presence of large and weeping crowds.

Rev. Dr. G. B. Bealer, one of the students of Furman Institution while located in Fairfield District, was an eminent minister, and for many years prominently identified with our denominational interests. He closed his valuable life at Atlanta, Ga., in May last. As might have been expected, he died in the triumphs of faith. At his own request, his body was conveyed to his native State for interment. It was in Darlington, S. C., that most of his valuable labors were spent, and it was here that his genial manner and catholic Christian spirit won for him the esteem and affection evinced by the general assemblage at his funeral, the tears there shed to his memory, and the garlands heaped upon his tomb. Brother Bealer departed this life about the forty-ninth year of his age, and the twenty-third of his ministry.

Rev. John Robertson, of the Reedy River Association, died about the 20th of last September. His early opportunities being limited, and having entered the ministry late in life, he was unable to reach any considerable degree of efficiency, but combined piety and zeal in the cause of His Master, and labored faithfully to the day of his death.

The Committee to Nominate a new Board of Trustees for Furman University, reported:

That the original Board consisted of twenty-five members, but by various additions had been increased to thirty-one. As some members have never attended since their appointment, it is proposed to drop their names, so reducing the number to twenty-five, as at first.

The ratio in which the representation of the respective Associations are entitled, by our constitution, to vote for Trustees of the University, is the same as at the last election in 1866, viz: Savannah River 36 votes, Welsh Neck 34, Charleston 18, Reedy River 10, Edgefield 10, Fairfield 8, Tyger River 6, Edisto 6, Saluda 1, Barnwell 1.

We recommend the election of the following Trustees:

On motion Dr. J. C. Furman, the Convention took a recess of five minutes to allow the Associations to consult in regard to the vote.

The ballot resulted in the adoption of the report, and election of the nominees.

The Committee on Religious Exercises reported:

Baptist Church.—Sermon by Rev. L. H. Shuck, at 11 A. M. Afternoon—Sunday School Meeting; addresses by Rev. F. W. Eason, Oliver F. Gregory and Rev. L. H. Shuck. Night—Rev. J. A. W. Thomas.

Presbyterian Church.—Rev. J. K. Mendenhall, at 11 A. M. Rev. T. R. Gaines, 5 P. M.

Methodist Church.—Rev. T. W. Smith, 11 A. M.

Brother A. W. Lamar moved that Dr. Sumner be invited to address the Convention in behalf of the Domestic Mission Board of Southern Baptist Convention.

He proceeded to do so, and $200 were pledged to his Board, and $37.25 added to the collection of last night.

Rev. T. R. Gaines called the attention of the Convention to Rev. Thomas Dawson, now 80 years old, and physically unable to perform his pastoral duties, and suggested a rally to his support; $55 were collected in his behalf.

By Rev. W. A. Gaines:

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to form some plan for supporting our aged and infirm ministers, and report at the next meeting of this Convention.

Resolved, That during the coming year, our State Mission Board be requested to ascertain the number of aged and infirm ministers of South Carolina, and also the indigent families of deceased ministers, and to raise a special fund to meet their wants as far as possible. Adopted.

Committee.—Revs. W. A. Gaines, T. D. Gwin, T. R. Gaines, A. Rice, and Brother J. R. Leavell.

The following additional delegates were enrolled:

Edgefield.—G. R. Caldwell, Rev. J. T. Wescott.

Saluda.—C. E. Horton, W. D. Beverly.

Brother O. F. Gregory, moved:

That whereas the records of our denomination are fast becoming scattered to the winds of heaven, and it is desirable that the history of our denomination should be preserved in some tangible form, that this Convention do now take a recess, to meet and take into consideration the formation of a Historical Society. Carried.

Immediately after the recess, on motion Brother A. Rice, the thanks of the Convention were tendered to the Railroad Companies that have granted facilities for attending this meeting.

On motion Brother O. F. Gregory, the thanks of the Convention were tendered to the citizens of Greenville for their kind greeting, and open hospitality.

Adjourned with prayer by Rev. B. F. Parrott.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The session was opened with singing, and prayer by Rev. W. H. Leavell.

On motion Rev. W. D. Thomas:

Resolved, That hereafter the delegation to the Southern Baptist Convention be authorized to fill vacancies in their number only with names of South Carolina Baptists in attendance.

On motion Rev. B. Manly:

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to inquire if any satisfactory adjustment can be effected of the mutual obligations of the Furman University, the Theological Seminary, and this Convention, so as to relieve all parties, and especially the University from the debt due the Seminary.

Committee.—Revs. B. Manly, W. D. Thomas, J. O. B. Dargan, and Brethren C. H. Judson and B. W. Edwards.

Rev. W. D. Thomas, for the committee appointed to consider the expediency of making an effort to raise an endowment for Furman University and of enlarging its faculty, reported the following resolutions, adopted by the Board of Trustees, as embodying their own views:

1. That if there was no Baptist College in the State, it would now be our duty to commence efforts with a view to establish one; and that the foundation already laid by the energy and sacrifices of our fathers, not only affords opportunity, but imposes the obligation to rise up and build.

2. That it is indispensable to the success of the University, that an endowment of $100,000 be added to its funds, and that we will commence at once the effort to secure it.

3. That Y. J. Pope, Esq., be appointed General Agent of the University, and requested to devote himself to this object.

4. That the Executive Committee be instructed to elect two additional Professors as soon as a sufficient amount is subscribed to furnish a reasonable prospect for supporting them.

5. That the details of the plan for raising the endowment proposed, be left to the Executive Committee, in consultation with the Agent.

Remarks were made by Brethren John G. Williams, L. H. Shuck, W. D. Thomas, W. B. Jones, J. B. Carwile, W. A. Gaines, J. B. Patrick, F. W. Eason, John Culpepper, Dr. M. T. Sumner, W. J. Snider, W. H. Leavell.

On motion Rev. J. A. W. Thomas, the Convention adjourned to meet immediately after Address before the Alumni of Furman University to-night, after prayer by Rev. John Stout.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention having been called to order by the President, Rev. B. Manly presented the report of the Committee on Names and Post Offices of Ministers, which was, on motion Rev. J. A. W. Thomas, adopted.

Rev. B. Manly, read the following report:

Your Committee on the Mutual Claims of the Seminary, the University and this Convention, beg leave to report: That they ascertain that the Trustees of Furman University have taken this subject into consideration, and have proposed to the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary to release the Seminary from all contingent and conditional claims for money to revert from it to the University, provided the Seminary will release the University from the amount now due the Seminary on their bond.

Your committee recommend that this Convention give its sanction to the above proposal, and concur in the release of the Seminary from the obligation referred to, provided the Seminary will relinquish its claim on the University, and will also release the Convention from its pledge to make up the South Carolina part of the endowment to $100,000 in cash. Adopted.

Rev. A. Rice moved that the Executive Board be instructed to have fifteen hundred copies of the Minutes printed. Carried.

On motion Rev. T. H. Pope, it was ordered that the collection on Sunday be appropriated to State Missions under the Executive Board.

On motion Rev. J. A. W. Thomas, the Convention adjourned to meet after the close of Sunday Night Services, after prayer by Rev. W. B. Carson.

SUNDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Sunday School was visited in the morning by most of the delegates, and short addresses made by Revs. A. M. Cartledge, John Culpepper, J. F. Morrall, Y. J. Pope, and others.

At 11 A. M., the Charity Sermon was preached by Rev. L. H. Shuck, from 1 Sam. iv: 13. A collection was taken up amounting to $67.00, and $8.00 in pledges.

In the afternoon, a Sunday School Meeting was held; appropriate addresses were delivered by Rev. F. W. Eason, Oliver F. Gregory and Rev. L. H. Shuck. A collection for Sunday School Missions was taken up, amounting to $24. Rev. J. K. Mendenhall, presided.

At 8½ Rev. P. M., J. A. W. Thomas preached from Heb. ii: 3. After the sermon, the President announced that the hour for parting had arrived, and made a few feeling and appropriate remarks. The hymn,

"Blest be the tie that binds,"

Was sung, and the parting hand was extended to each other by the brethren; words of encouragement and good cheer was spoken by Dr. J. C. Furman.

The Convention was thus adjourned, after prayer by Rev. W. D. Thomas, to meet in Camden on Thursday before the last Lord's Day in November, 1871.
